

Job description Network Planning Officer

Organisation	Challenge Airlines BE
Reports to	Network Planning Manager
Location	Liège - Belgium
Position Code	CHG56
Job Purpose	The Network Planning Officer organize and directly participate in the development and execution of the yearly, monthly and weekly group schedule planning. She/he reports to the Network Planning Manager.
Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ensure the smooth execution of group's commercial schedule in the most effective and efficient way, • Ensure all relevant updates surrounding all planning connected information and documents are given to all relevant parties in the Company and the Group, • Develop and implement effective business administration and function management for the Network Planning department, • Develop and provide the Network Planning Manager proposals regarding the Group's planning, • Participate in development of the group's and the company's missions, goals and strategy under his/her functions, • Obtain traffic rights, slots and all necessary commercial permits to ensure the smooth operation for the group's activity, • Ensure all information in connection with the schedule planning is communicated in accordance with the Company and the Group's regulations, • Coordinate the group's planned schedule with stakeholders within and outside the group, • Develop and implement actions for reduction of operational costs of the group, • Participate in development and realization of the group's planes on interaction with external service providers within his/her competence, • Independently make decisions on the group's commercial planning activity within the scope of his/her authorities, • Take measures on improvement of schedule planning, duly inform the Network Planning Manager about them.
Job Requirements
Education	Bachelor in Economy/Industrial Engineer or equivalent degree in relevant subjects

Experience, Skills, and Personal Attributes

- Experience performing network analysis
- Experience in logistics and/or aviation is an advantage
- Work in computer environment, excel-proficient
- English is fluent, knowledge of French is a plus
- Flexibility, organisation, teamwork ability